

Langley Research Center

LAPG 3792.3

Effective Date: January 7, 2000

Expiration Date: January 7, 2005

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Responsible Office: Office of Human Resources

LAPG 3792.3

PREFACE

This Langley Procedures and Guidelines (LAPG) defines responsibilities for implementing the NASA program for a drug-free workplace as defined in NPG 3792.1, "Plan for a Drug-Free Workplace."

LAPD 3792.3, dated May 7, 1991, is rescinded and should be destroyed.

Lana M. Couch
Associate Director for Business Management

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter		Page
1	General Provisions	1-1
2	Statement of Assignment of Responsibilities	2-1

1.0 General Provisions

This Langley Procedures and Guidelines (LAPG) sets forth procedures and responsibilities for implementing the NASA program for a drug-free workplace as defined in NPG 3792.1, "Plan for a Drug-Free Workplace."

2.0 Statement of Assignment of Responsibilities

a. Drug Program Coordinator (DPC)

The Head, Personnel Management Branch (PMB), Office of Human Resources (OHR), is the LaRC DPC and is responsible for implementing the drug-free workplace program.

b. Medical Review Official (MRO)

The Director, LaRC Occupational Medical Center, is the LaRC MRO and is responsible for receiving and reviewing laboratory results generated from the NASA Drug-Free Workplace Plan.